

Asset enhancement.

Valparaíso is a town with an eclectic blend of styles, ranging from English Victorian architecture of the mid XIX century to gothic architecture, mainly in public buildings and mansions in the town's historic center. All this influence of European immigrants has turned Valparaíso into a unique town. This is why Alianza Puerto Ciudad was used to recover and paint the façades of various buildings of historic value, reflecting the styles located in the town's sectors.

CLOSE-UP OF EXECUTED WORK.