

Compensation for parties damages by the 2014 fire.

The aim was to contribute to emergency aid and reconstruction of the damage caused by the huge fire that broke out in Valparaíso on 12 April 2014 in La Pólvora, considered the largest city fire in Chile's history, leaving more than 2,900 homes destroyed, 12,500 damaged parties, 15 deaths and more than 500 injured. Alianza's contribution was used for basic supplies and bare necessities, such as clothes, beds, non-perishable food, first aid and tools, amongst others.
